

	Liberal	Conservative	Libertarian
	F	C	A
I. Personal Security (Life): Not to be killed, injured, or abused, including the right of self defense.	favors civilian weapons restrictions	good except for People w/o Papers	favors unequivocal right of self defense
II. Personal Liberty:
A. To move freely.	A	C (PwP)	A
B. To associate (or not) with others and assemble peaceably.	F affirm discrim; Title II	B anti affirm discrim	A the right to be bigoted
C. To keep and bear arms.	F	B	A
D. To assemble in an independent well-disciplined militia.	F	A	A
E. To communicate with the world.	B (net neutrality)	C (censorship)	A
F. To express or publish one's opinions or those of others.	A	A	A
G. To practice one's religion.	C (aff dis)	C (govt sponsored)	A
H. To be secure in one's person, house, papers, vehicle, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures.	A	D Drug nazi home invasions	A
I. To enjoy privacy in all matters in which the rights of others are not violated.	D DiFi and other liberals defending NSA spying	D Hawks defending NSA spying, covert surveil.	A
III. Private Property:
A. To acquire, have and use the means necessary to exercise the above natural rights and pursue happiness, including housing, tools, and arms.	D rob and redistribute; inflate, tax & spend; double tax corps; regulate production	C rob and redistribute; inflate, tax & spend; somewhat less regulation than liberals	A laissez faire; against regulation and taxation in principle
B. To enter into contracts, and associations, to secure the means to exercise the above natural rights.	D imminent domain; regulating commerce and production	C except military and certain other special interests	A
IV. Non-natural rights of personhood, created by social contract:
A. To enjoy equally the rights, privileges and protections of personhood as established by law.	C except for bigots	C except for PWP's	A
B. To petition government officials for redress of grievances	A	A	A
C. Not to have one's natural rights individually disabled except through due process of law.	A	A	A
V. Non-natural rights or citizenship, created by social contract:
A. To enjoy equally the rights and privileges of citizenship as established by law.	A	D except for PWP's	A
B. To vote in elections that are conducted fairly and honestly, by secret ballot.	A	A	A
C. To exercise general police powers to defend the community and enforce the laws.	D oppose militias and armed civilians	A	A