

You are moral because you obey your god's commands.

I am moral because I strive to understand how man lives and prospers, and act accordingly.

I reject authoritarian Divine Command notions of morality. I prefer rational moral theories based on objective reality.