Good and evil refer to actions by moral agents.

Crime

Action which aggresses against others.

Alternatively:
Action which justifies rectificatory use of force.

Vice

Action which is non-aggresive, but hinders the goals or values of the actor.

Neutral

Action which is non-aggresive, and does not effect agent's goals or values.

Virtue

Action which is non-aggresive, and promotes the goals or values of the actor.

(n,u)

 $n = \frac{0 \text{ if action is aggressive}}{1 \text{ if action is not aggressive}}$

U = the utility wrt the actor's values and goals, i.e. self-actualization.
