

Tolerance (non-judgmental)

Indiscriminate acceptance of other's ideas, no matter how foolish.

An open mind, so open that it lets the trash in.

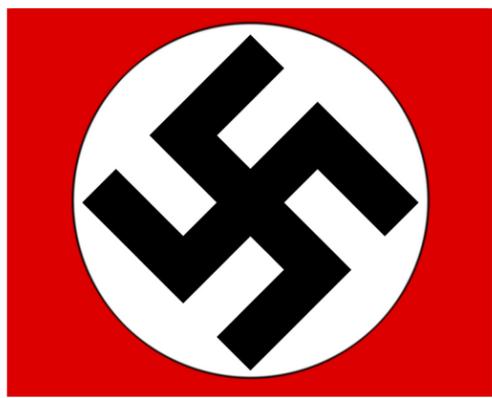

Tolerance (non-aggression)

No initiation of violence against others, no matter how foolish their ideas.

An active mind. "Judge and be prepared to be judged."

This is the only rational type of tolerance.

Intolerance (social fascism)

Use of violence against others who have different or disagreeable ideas.

A closed mind. "Kill the infidels!" "Lynch the traitor!"
